

Sales Development Manager

Established in 1867 G.R. Wright & Sons Ltd is a successful flour milling company, making flour and flour based mixes for the Food Industry. We are the brand leaders of retail bread mixes selling to the major multiples for the home baking market.

Our range of products has been more recently extended to include retail cake mixes.

We also manufacture trade mixes for the bakery sector.

We are looking for an experienced sales professional to maintain and develop existing and new business in the above areas selling retail and trade baking mixes to the multiples and larger food manufacturers with a proven track record in developing sales particularly to these market sectors.

Technical experience with these products would be advantageous.

Full computer literacy would be essential.

We offer a competitive salary, car scheme and benefits package.
